

Center for Faculty Development & Diversity March Highlights

Stress Management in a Hurry

Friday, March 3 | 12:00-1:00 pm | Carrie Hall Conference Room

The seminar is specifically designed to build resilience through a variety of mind-body principles and self-care interventions. You will learn to focus your mind and gain awareness of how stress affects you personally, and you will identify adaptive strategies that can help you to respond most effectively to stressful situations.

Demystifying Promotions for Medical Educators

Monday, March 13 | 12:00-1:00 pm | Carrie Hall Conference Room

This seminar is geared towards faculty interested in being promoted on the Teaching & Educational Leadership Area of Excellence track. The criteria for successfully navigating the promotions process at Harvard Medical School will be reviewed and followed by an opportunity for Q&A.

Looking Your Best on Paper for Postdocs: Building a Resume and Cover Letter for Industry

Wednesday, March 22 | 3:30-5:30 pm | BTM 3002

This workshop will focus on how to highlight experiences and skills on a resume and cover letter, and the importance of tailoring these documents for specific jobs. The presentation will provide examples of skills and experiences that should be emphasized for different types of roles.

CFDD Family Care Travel Award (FCTA)

This award provides financial support to defray some costs of traveling with dependents, or of providing extra care at home while traveling, to professional meetings which are critical to promoting the advancement of early career scholars with familial obligations. This award is offered on a rolling basis.
